

The Board of Trustees of the University of Western States recognizes the federal, state and accreditation requirements to publish certain information, including institutional mission, admission requirements, program learning outcomes, and a variety of institutional, academic and student policies for the public.

The university ensures public disclosure on the university website and in the UWS Catalog. In addition, all policies are available to employees and students through Udocs or its future equivalent.

Related Policies:

Responsible Board Committee: BOT Bylaw and Policy Committee

Keywords: disclosure, public, publication